The Roehampton Club is a highly prestigious, member owned, sports complex in South West London that boasts a healthy waiting list and has recently undergone significant refurbishment.

Set in extensive grounds, the Club comprises an 18-hole golf course, twenty seven tennis courts, a health and fitness centre, two swimming pools, five squash courts and four croquet lawns. Excellent food and beverage facilities are complemented by a thriving social calendar as well as a varied programme of sports competitions and events.

Reporting to the Chairman, this is a high profile leadership post requiring a very visible and member-oriented approach. Responsible for a senior management team and ninety staff, a strong track record of effective people management and motivational capability will be needed along with excellent interpersonal and communication skills.

Essential to the role is a passion for personalised customer service, operational excellence and sound business acumen as well as an ability to contribute further to the hospitality and catering offering. An interest in sport particularly golf or tennis will be preferable. Living within easy commutable distance of the Club is essential.

All applications for this role should be directed in writing with full CV and salary details to our nominated consultant.
