

General Manager Anglesey

Overlooking the beautiful bay of Trearddur, this 40 bedroom, 79% rated AA property, with extensive banqueting, restaurant and bar operations is the perfect venue for meeting, conferences, functions, weddings and private dining. Now with Anglesey's improved infrastructure the hotel is easily accessible by car and is a matter of minutes from Holyhead train and ferry links making Ireland an accessible 90 minutes away.

The Trearddur Bay is a well-established privately owned business which has been in its current ownership for over thirty years during which time it has built an excellent reputation within North Wales and surrounding regions for the provision of consistently high professional standards.

Due to the family re-location of our current long-standing General Manager we are currently looking for a General Manager with a proven track record of success in their career to date, ideally, but not exclusively, having worked with private owners previously. To be successful in this role you must have excellent inter-personal skills with the personality and credibility to influence results by increasing the business profile in the local business and resident community. Financially astute you report directly to the Board of Directors and will have a strong voice in the future development of the property. Excellent role for a quality focussed hotelier.

An attractive salary and benefits package, including a lovely 3 bedroom house, will be offered to the successful applicant.
